District Judge: Hon. Larry A. Burns

Courtroom: 9

1 Plaintiffs AMERICAN TOWER CORPORATION, A DELAWARE CORPORATION, ,
2 and Defendant CITY OF SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA (individually “Party” and, collectively, the 3 “Parties”), by and through their undersigned attorneys hereby submit this Joint Motion for Stay of 4 Litigation Pending the Ninth Circuit’s En Banc Rehearing of Sprint Telephony PCS, LP, et al. v.
5 County of San Diego, et al., 490 F.3d 700 (9th Cir. 2007) (hereinafter “County of San Diego”).

6 The Parties’ request for a stay of proceedings arises as a result of the Ninth Circuit’s Order
7 dated May 14, 2008, which granted the County of San Diego’s motion for reconsideration of 8 County of San Diego and noted expressly that “The three-judge panel opinion shall not be cited as 9 precedent by or to any court of the Ninth Circuit” Sprint Telephony PCS, LP, et al. v. County of 10 San Diego, et al., 2008 U.S. App. LEXIS 10421 (9th Cir., filed May 14, 2008) (“May 14th Order” 11 attached as Exhibit 1).

12 The Parties agree that the en banc ruling in County of San Diego will be important to the 13 outcome of key claims in the present litigation and that a decision by the Court that is not based on 14 County of San Diego or its progeny, in short order, could be rendered obsolete. The Ninth Circuit
15 has already set June 24, 2008 as the date for oral argument and the parties in that case are presently
16 filing briefs under tight deadlines. Although the Parties cannot predict how quickly the Ninth 17 Circuit is likely to act, the Parties are aware that the Ninth Circuit is operating under a highly 18 expedited time frame and believe that it is likely the en banc ruling will be issued quickly.

19 The Parties also agree that a stay is the fairest course for the Parties and that proceeding in 20 the present case without a stay will result in hardship and inequity to both Parties. First, the 21 Plaintiffs filed their complaint prior to the issuance of the May 14th Order and did not take into 22 account the impact of an order not to cite County of San Diego as precedent. In addition, as a
23 result of the May 14th Order, the Parties are put in the unfair and untenable position of having to 24 speculate regarding the outcome of the en banc ruling and to formulate arguments that both avoid 25
26
27

reference to a critical line of cases and yet have the possibility of leading the Court to an outcome that is not immediately overturned. This guesswork is not consistent with principles of fairness that should govern the judicial process or the orderly course of justice.

In addition, a brief stay of the litigation in order to allow the Ninth Circuit time to issue its en banc ruling will prevent the unnecessary and wasteful use of judicial resources and the Parties' resources which is likely to result if the Parties or the Court guesses wrong about the outcome of the en banc decision. Finally, a stay is consistent with the orderly course of justice in that it would simplify the Parties' arguments and the Court's deliberations and will avoid the needless complications of moving the litigation forward under the restrictions of the May 14th Order.

THEREFORE, Plaintiffs and the City stipulate, by and between their respective counsel, as follows:

1. That the Court is authorized to stay this litigation "under the powers to control its own docket and to provide for the prompt and efficient determination of the cases pending before it." Lockyer v. Mirant Corp., 398 F.3d 1098, 1111 (9th Cir. 2005) citing Levy v. Certified Grocers of California, Ltd., 593 F.2d 857, 863-4 (9th Cir. 1979) ("a trial court may, with propriety, find it is efficient for its own docket and the fairest course for the parties to enter a stay of an action before it, pending resolution of independent proceedings which bear upon the case");
2. The Court has issued a similar stay in the related case of American Tower Corporation v. City of San Diego et al., Case No. 07cv0399-LAB (NLS) (First Amended Complaint filed August 29, 2007) (order staying proceedings attached as Exhibit 2) and the Parties will seek a will seek a similar stay in the related case of American Tower Corporation v. City of San Diego et al., Case No. 08cv0435 LAB (NLS) (filed March 12, 2008).

3 Subject to the court's approval, from the date of the order on this stipulation to and including the Ninth Circuit's ruling in County of San Diego, all proceedings in this matter shall be

Channel Law Group, LLP
100 Oceangate, Suite 1400
Long Beach, CA 90802

1 stayed;

2 4. Following issuance of the Ninth Circuit's ruling in this case, the Parties are ordered
3 promptly to file a notice so stating; and

4 5. The present Notice and Order Setting Telephonic Early Neutral Evaluation Conference
5 with Counsel Only dated June 6, 2008 is hereby VACATED and as soon as the Parties file a notice
6 of the Ninth Circuit's en banc ruling, they shall call Judge Stormes' chambers to request to set a 7 date for a telephonic early neutral evaluation conference.

CASE NO. 07CV0399-LAB (NLS)

ORDER STAYING PROCEEDINGS

23 On June 5, 2008, the parties jointly moved to stay litigation pending the Ninth Circuit's
24 en banc ruling in Sprint Telephony PCS, LLP, et al. v. County of San Diego, et al., Case Nos.
25 05-56076, 05-56435. The joint motion asked that the stay be lifted no earlier than December
26 8, 2008. On June 12, 2008, the court granted the joint motion in part, vacating the hearing 27 on the pending cross motions for summary judgment or summary adjudication but denying 28 the request to suspend briefing on those motions. The Court reserved ruling on the question of the requested stay.

The cross motions are now fully briefed and the Court now GRANTS IN PART the request for stay of proceedings. All proceedings in this case are hereby STAYED pending

1 the Ninth Circuit's ruling in Sprint Telephony. Following issuance of the Ninth Circuit's en
2 banc ruling in this case, the parties are ORDERED promptly to file a notice so stating. The 3 parties may then, if they wish, each file supplemental briefing no later than 21 calendar
4 days from the issuance of the Ninth Circuit's decision. Each party's supplemental 5 briefing shall not exceed ten pages, not counting material appended or lodged with the 6 Court. Following the Ninth Circuit's decision, the Court will lift its stay. The cross motions
7 may be re-set for oral argument if the Court determines oral argument is appropriate, see
8 Civil Local Rule 7.1(d)(1), but if oral argument is not reset, the cross motions will be under 9 submission as of 28 calendar days after the issuance of the Ninth Circuit's decision.
